By SYLVANUS URBAN, Gent.

LONDON, Printed by J. NICHOLS, for D. HENRY, late of ST. JOHN'S GATE.

years, there have been born in his Prussian Majesty's dominions 3,021,360 children of both sexes, and in the same space of time there have died 2,661,331 persons of both sexes. Difference between the births and deaths 360,029 in favour of the former.

In commemoration of the American war, and the independence of America that succeeded it, Dr. Franklin has caused a medal to be struck. It represents Hercules in his cradle, strangling two serpents; a leopard, amazed at his strength, is ready to fall upon him; he is repulsed by France, who, under the figure of Minerva, turns her shield, on which are three fleurs de lis, towards him. At bottom are the years 1777 and 1781, epochs of the capitulations of the armies of Burgoyne and Cornwallis, represented by the two serpents. On the other side is Liberty, emblematically pourtrayed by a fine woman; and in the exergue, Libertas Americana.

The loss which has happened to this country from tempestuous weather within these 12 months is beyond conception: To those
